

Lesson Summary

Unit Title: Colonial Settlement Chapter Title: Colonial Life Varies from Region to Region

★ Lesson (topic)	How the Colonists Lived in New England	How the Colonists Lived in New England	How the Colonists Lived in New England	How the Colonists Lived in New England	How the Colonists Lived in New England
☐ Main Ideas (heading)	New England Society	New England Society	New England Society	Puritan Values	Puritan Values
○ Details (subheading)	Geographic Conditions Make Farming Difficult	New England Towns Develop	Fishing Grows in Importance	Religion is Important in Colonial New England	Punishments are Severe in Colonial New England
★ Specifics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • poor growing conditions with trees and rocky soil • farmers first grew just enough to survive • eventually farmers grew surplus and could trade 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • people lived close together because roads were poor • lived close for security against Indians • towns were built around a common 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • good location for fishing because of protected harbors. • some of the world's largest fishing grounds • whaling was a large industry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • church was the center of all social activity • wanted colony to be a "city on the hill" an example to other colonies • Sundays were devoted to prayer 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • laws strict and lawbreakers punished • Salem Witchcraft Trials killed men and women in 1691-1692 • lawbreakers such as liars might go to the stock, pillory, or be whipped